FINE YEAR ON FARM

Although called upon to furnish the Tigers with several key reinforcements during the regular season, the Detroit farm system produced three pennant winners in 1963 and rolled up a total of 415 victories against 363 defeats, comparing favorably with the 432-337 mark of 1962 which was the best of all major league chains.

Top hitter of the farm system was Willie Horton, who finished .333 at Knoxville, only four points below the Sally League leader. The chain's lone batting champion was its smallest player, Mike Holodick, who hit .325 at Jamestown.

Most successful pitcher was Willie Smith, whose 14-2 record at Syracuse was good for an .875 percentage.

SPRING TRAINING

The Tigers have trained at Henley Field in Lakeland every year except three since 1934. During the war years, 1943-45, the team trained at Evansville, Ind.

Henley Field is located at the northern limits of the city and is easily accessible from the new trans-Florida Highway, Int. No. 4. Playing conditions at Henley Field are maintained as close as possible to those of Tiger Stadium. The field ranks with the best in major league parks.

A new clubhouse was completed in 1959, and has all modern equipment. There is a special press room and a dark room for photographers. The press box at Henley Field is spacious and modern.

Tigertown, where Detroit farm system players are screened and trained, is less than a mile north of Henley Field.

TIGER STADIUM

Recent alterations, notably in the box seats areas, have brought the capacity of Tiger Stadium to 53,089 seats.

Official figures list 9,377 box seats; 22,210 reserved; 11,502 unreserved grandstand; and 10,000 bleacher seats.

Baseball has been played at the site since 1900, a year before the American League was born with the Tigers as a charter member. Known as Bennett Park at the time, it became Navin Field in 1912, Briggs Stadium in 1938 and Tiger Stadium Jan. 1, 1961.

The playing field and stands at Tiger Stadium are considered among the finest in baseball. Facilities for players, fans, press, television and radio personnel are excellent and improved whenever possible. Although occupied frequently by more than 50,000 fans, it can be emptied in less than 10 minutes.

More than 10,000 square yards of sod are needed annually to repair the wear and tear of both baseball and football on the playing area. Sprinkling and drainage facilities are among the best and the latest-type field cover can be placed in less than a minute.

FETZER 10TH TIGER PRESIDENT

John E. Fetzer, sole owner of the Tigers since Nov. 14, 1961, is the 10th in line to hold the position of club president. The nationally-prominent television-radio executive, with holdings in Michigan and Nebraska, has taken an increasingly-active role in baseball administration since entering the game in 1956 as head of a syndicate purchasing the Tigers from the estate of the late W. O. Briggs. Fetzer is an alternate member of baseball's executive council and has held a number of important committee assignments, including those concerned with television, player pensions and bonus restrictions.

Charter president of the Tigers when the American League was organized in 1901 was James D. Burns, also sheriff of Wayne County. In succeeding years, the post has been held by Samuel F. Angus (1902-1903), William H. Yawkey (1904-1906), Frank J. Navin (1907-1935), Walter O. Briggs (1936-1951), Walter O. Briggs, Jr. (1952-1956), Fred A. Knorr (1956), Harvey R. Hansen (1957-1959), William O. DeWitt (1960), and Fetzer since Oct. 11, 1960.

CLEARING THE ROOF

Between 1938, when Tiger Stadium was rebuilt on its present lines, and 1956, only one home run was hit over the roof—by Ted Williams in 1939, his rookie season. Since then, the feat has been accomplished eight more times, including the first blow over the left field roof, by Harmon Killebrew in 1962.

Longest of the eight homers over the right field stands is credited to Norm Cash, for a blow July 29, 1962 which was estimated at 560 feet.

WHY THEY ARE TIGERS

Detroit baseball teams have been called Tigers since 1896, before the American League was organized. Philip J. Reid, city editor of a Detroit newspaper, is believed to have bestowed the nickname on the Western League entry of '96 but George Stallings, Detroit manager of the era, took credit for the move resulting in the name when he put his players in black-and-brown striped stockings which reminded many fans of tiger stripes.
